

EMERGING PHOTOGRAPHERS

© JEFFREY WOOD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 9, 2010 PHOTO LIFE'S EMERGING PHOTOGRAPHERS COMPETITION NOW OPEN

Photo Life is pleased to present the opening of the 2010 Emerging Photographers competition, which gives Canadian photography students, photography workshop participants, apprentice photographers, and those just beginning their careers as photographers a unique opportunity to share their vision and talent with the world.

Photographers who wish to participate to Emerging Photographers are invited to send their submissions exclusively via our on-line facilities at www.photolife.com/emerging.php. Participants can submit up to 3 images and must provide technical information and a brief narrative/comment for each image. Please note that this competition is open to Canadian residents only. Additional submission instructions are available at www.photolife.com/emerging.php.

From the submissions received, editors will select the most outstanding up-and-coming talents; those will be showcased in Photo Life's August/September issue.

Deadline for submissions: May 15, 2010

Photolife

Photo Life Magazine

Established in 1976, Photo Life magazine is Canada's leading source for photography including technical knowledge and tips, industry news and events, international travel photography editorials as well as interviews and profiles of major Canadian and International Photographers. Photo Life is published six times per annum and is distributed to subscribers, newsstands and participating photo retailers.

Les Éditions APEX Publications

Apex Publications Inc.

Our primary objective at Apex Publications Inc. is to deliver the art, culture and science of photography to photographers of all levels. Along with Photo Life and Photo Solution, two annual publications are also published: Buyers' Guide, an invaluable year-round shopping reference for photographers, amateur and professional alike and Master Guide, an essential working tool for all Canadian photo, video and digital dealers.